Dear Mr. Cepeda,

There are two fundamental problems with your subpoena that preclude me from accepting service. First, the subpoena is directed to the wrong entity; when you re-issue the subpoena, please direct it to Ernst & Young LLP. Second, the subpoena incorrectly describes the EY witness "as 30(b)(6) designated witness of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico." That misstates the posture of this deposition. The designated EY witness will testify as the 30(b)(6) representative of Ernst & Young LLP, testifying as to matters within the knowledge of Ernst & Young LLP as relates to work performed by Ernst & Young LLP for the Board. Any agreement you and the Board may have reached in connection with how the parties to this case may use that testimony and how it may bind the Board is between you and the Board; EY takes no position on that matter.

EY may have additional objections to the designated topics that we will raise after a valid subpoena has been issued.

Regards,
Antoinette

Ms. DeCamp,

Attached please find a subpoena for EY to appear at a deposition in relation to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico insolvency proceedings, as designated 30(b)(6) witness for the Financial Oversight and Management Board.

Please provide us at your earliest convenience with the names and email addresses of the designated witness or witnesses, as well as any attorneys who will appear at the deposition on behalf of EY, to ensure that they timely receive an invitation with a link to the deposition.

Cordially,

Alejandro Cepeda
